MAGIC AND LORE

Soul-Bonds (Fae)

Forged, not fated. Triggered during intense emotional moments and sealed once both parties accept it. Once formed? Unbreakable.

Mates (Wolves)

Basically the same concept... but wolves believe it's fate, not choice.

Fae Wings

Only appear when their lives are in danger... or when they're around their soul-bonded mate. Sometimes show up during intimacy.

CHARACTERS

Aurelia	Self-taught sorceress with way too much magic and zero sense of self-preservation. Stubborn, reckless, and very Gryffindor-coded.	Jett	Spymaster with secrets on secrets.
Fox	Commander of the Vernallis army. Quiet, broody, man-bun energy. Says about five words total. Soft center, just heavily guarded.	Connell	Still giving Captain Jack Sparrow vibes. Morally flexible, questionably helpful.
Sylvia	Queen of Thermia. Let's just say... not exactly winning any popularity contests.	Amora	Aurelia's mom—and the reason this entire adventure exists. Fox can blame her for everything.
Eugene	The real star of the show. Tiny, chaotic, possibly judgmental. Must be protected at all costs.	Kai	Alpha of the wolves (allegedly). Not as dominant as you'd expect. Friends with Fox—we like him.
		Luka	Wolf, friend of Fox's. Solid vibes—we like him.
		Viktor	Beta of the wolves. An ass. Hates witches. We do not like him.

WORLDBUILDING

Ellender	A magical world parallel to the human one, home to Fae, sirens, shifters, and monsters.
Storia	Once a tiny village, now being transformed into the capital under Daemon and Alix's rule.

The Four Kingdoms

Vernallis	Western kingdom, now ruled by Daemon & Alix	Thermia	Northern kingdom, frozen and dangerous (also... missing queen??)
Hydratta	Southern kingdom, currently under Lyra's rule	Solistine	Eastern kingdom, leadership still a question mark
